9th Grade Literature & Composition B.

CCGPS Standards:

ELACC9-10L4: Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 9–10 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies. a. Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence, paragraph, or text; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase. b. Identify and correctly use patterns of word changes that indicate different meanings or parts of speech (e.g., analyze, analysis, analytical; advocate, advocacy). c. Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning, its part of speech, or its etymology. d. Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).

ELACC9-10RL1: Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text

ELACC9-10RL2: Determine a theme or central idea of text and analyze in detail its development over the course of the text, including how it emerges and is shaped and refined by specific details; provide an objective summary of the text.

ELACC9-10RL3: Analyze how complex characters (e.g., those with multiple or conflicting motivations) develop over the course of a text, interact with other characters, and advance the plot or develop the theme.

ELACC9-10RL4: Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the cumulative impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone (e.g., how the language evokes a sense of time and place; how it sets a formal or informal tone.)

ELACC9-10RL5: Analyze how an author's choices concerning how to structure a text, order events within it (e.g., parallel plots), and manipulate time (e.g., pacing, flashbacks) create such effects as mystery, tension, or surprise.

ELACC9-10RL10: By the end of grade 9, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, in the grades 9-10 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. By the end of grade 10, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, in the grades 9-10 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range

Bell Ringer: Thursday, 04-16-15

- “You never really understand a person until you consider things from his point of view [...] until you climb into his skin and walk around in it” (Lee).
- Why is this important? How does this quote relate to the Tom Robinson case?

Important Dates:

- Expect pop quizzes over TKAM anytime!

Agenda: Thursday, 04-16-15

- TKAM review Part One = half credit today only
- Rewrite the same scene from the other/another character's perspective. Due: tomorrow, Friday, 04/17
- Classwork/homework: Read Chapter 14 of TKAM.

End of Course Test (EOC)

- selected response (AKA multiple choice)
- constructed response (Partial credit may be awarded.)
- For American Literature and Composition, the student will respond to a narrative prompt based on a passage the student has read, and the response will be scored according to the Writing/Language domain. Partial credit may be awarded.
- An extended constructed-response item is a specific type of constructed-response item that elicits a longer, more detailed response from the student than a two-point constructed-response item does.
- The extended writing-response items require the student to produce an argument or develop an informative or explanatory response.

End of Course Milestone

EXAMPLE NARRATIVE (STORY) PROMPT:

Explain what makes the relationship between Claude and Ralph complicated. Support your answer with details from the text.

Willa Cather wrote the story using third person point of view. How would the excerpt be different if Ralph were narrating? Rewrite the beginning of the story from Ralph's perspective.

Genre: Narrative (story)

EXEMPLARY: The student's response is a well-developed narrative that fully develops a real or imagined experience based on a text as a stimulus.

- Effectively establishes a situation, one or more points of view, and introduces a narrator and/or characters
- Creates a smooth progression of events
- Effectively uses multiple narrative techniques, such as dialogue, description, pacing, reflection, and plot to develop rich, interesting experiences, events, and/or characters
 - Uses a variety of techniques consistently to sequence events that build on one another
 - Uses precise words and phrases, details, and sensory language consistently to convey a vivid picture of the events
- Provides a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events
- Integrates ideas and details from source material effectively
- Has very few or no errors in usage and/or conventions that interfere with meaning*

TKAM: Narrative Practice 2

- Narrative 1: Choose a particularly striking scene from Chapters 1-9 of To Kill A Mockingbird involving one or more characters.
- Narrative 2: Rewrite the same scene from the other/another character's perspective. Describe the setting (time + place), thoughts, feelings, interactions, dialogue, and anything else that will make this scene believable. . . Is it staying true to the character? Does it sound like Harper Lee's version of the character stylistically?

Narrative:

- Situation/conflict
- Character development
- Chronological order
- dialogue/description
- transitions
- grammatically correct
- solid conclusion
- realistic and can't contradict the story
