

Wednesday, 12-03-14

American Literature & Composition A

Agenda: Wednesday, 12-03-14

- Personal declarations of independence are due & should be shared (half credit tomorrow).
- Present for extra credit! Present them; don't just read them!
- According to the vocabulary list you're assigned, write ten review questions for tomorrow's game using the types of questions you will have on the test :

Examples:

Choose the best word in the sentence:

Laura _____ vegetables, she would try anything so she wouldn't have to eat them.

- A. likes B. abhors C. castigates D. chides E. abominates

Identify the part of speech.

It is generally believed that most women have an ABHORRENCE of mice.

- A. Noun B. Pronoun C. Adverb D. Verb E. Adj

Pick the best definition for the word in the sentence.

The defense lawyer had a sworn _____ from witnesses claiming his client was innocent of the crime charged against him.

- A. accolade B. affidavit C. affinity D. abut E. abridge

Vocabulary Test Format:

- Choose the best word to complete the sentence.
- Identify the part of speech in the sentence.
- Pick the best definition for the word in the sentence.
- Pick words from the bank of words, and write a sentence using the word that demonstrates an understanding of the word's meaning.

Upcoming Dates:

- Slight Change: Vocabulary test: Friday, 12/5
only lists 1-7
- Change: Final drafts due: Friday, 12/12 by 11:59 p.m.

Classwork/Homework:

- Personal declarations of independence = half credit tomorrow
- Come up with review questions for review game tomorrow! Due: tomorrow
- Study for your vocabulary test! (Lists 1-7)