

Tuesday, 1-13-15

American Literature & Composition B.

Bell Ringer: Tuesday, 1-13-15

None today

The Middle Passage:

Slave Ship

Agenda:

- Slave narratives are autobiographical accounts by persons who suffered the horrors of slavery.
- 2 examples we're reading:
- excerpt from The Interesting Narrative of the Life of Olaudah Equiano
- excerpt from Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass

Agenda: 1-13-15

- AP Night this Thursday @ 7:00 p.m. Commons
- S.L.O. testing today?
- Syllabus due today
- Absent yesterday? You need to check out a book.
- Last night, you were supposed to read through Chapter 2 of Frederick Douglass.
- free audio of narrative: <https://librivox.org/life-and-times-of-frederick-douglass-by-frederick-douglass/>
- Analyze the slave songs/poetry.

Analyzing Slave songs/poetry

- In small groups, examine slave songs today.
- Each person needs to write the questions and the answers.
- no technology!
- File the questions & answers in the “Class Work” section of your binder.

Homework:

Read Chapters 6-8.