Agenda:

ELACC9-10RL1: Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

ELACC9-10RL2: Determine a theme or central idea of text and analyze in detail its development over the course of the text, including how it emerges and is shaped and refined by specific details; provide an objective summary of the text.

ELACC9-10RL3: Analyze how complex characters (e.g., those with multiple or conflicting motivations) develop over the course of a text, interact with other characters, and advance the plot or develop the theme.

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.9-10.1.A Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas.

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.9-10.1.C Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that relate the current discussion to broader themes or larger ideas; actively incorporate others into the discussion; and clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions. CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.9-10.1. Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives, summarize points of agreement and disagreement, and, when warranted, qualify or justify their own views and understanding and make new connections in light of the evidence and reasoning presented.

EQ('s): What would the world be like without books? What are some of the important themes in the text? What themes ring true in our society today? What commentary is Bradbury saying about society?

- ❖ Return novels beginning tomorrow.
- ❖ Submit questions for review game.

Rules/Review Game: Fahrenheit 451

.....

Review Game:

- 2 teams
- Questioner/teacher-- I will read each question 2x.
 - scorekeeper/help moderate.
- 2 players at one time/hands behind backs
- 1 point for each correct question/no deductions for wrong answer. Other team has a shot.
- If the answer is wrong, the other team will have 20 seconds to collaborate, and then the elected spokesperson will share the answer.
- Everyone is going to participate, and no one is going to argue with me!

Classwork/Homework:

- Fahrenheit 451 test tomorrow, Friday, 12/5!
- Review your webquest, bell-ringers, notes, and study guide!
