Which of the following is correct?

- 1) They were all shocked. “The windmill was in ruins” (Smith 71).
- 2) At this moment, Whitney knew that “she was destined for greatness” (Davis 54).
- 3) As the animals recall, “there was a definite ruling against beds” (Jones 79).

A few more. . .

- 1) According to some, dreams express "profound aspects of personality" (Foulkes 184), though others disagree.
- 2) According to Foulkes's study, dreams may express "profound aspects of personality" (184).
- 3) Is it possible that dreams may express "profound aspects of personality" (Foulkes 184)?

A grrrrreeattt example:

Think about the statement or argument you're trying to make.

- Use evidence (exact words) from the text.
- Explain how the quoted material proves your topic sentence/thesis statement.

Example One:

At first, Juliet has doubts about her future. She tells Romeo that the marriage is “too rash, too unadvised, too sudden” (Shakespeare 645). Juliet's hesitation illustrates her impressive foresight; she is able to see the possible consequences to their hasty actions.
